

Hallie Zobel Named as President of EAGO by Popular Vote

Maitland, FL – July 9, 2014 – Your Caring Law Firm, a boutique legal practice focused on probate, wills, trust and guardianship services, as well as business succession, asset protection and estate planning, today announced that partner Hallie Zobel was named president of the Executive Association of Greater Orlando (EAGO). The election, in which Zobel ran for Board of Directors, chooses its president by means of popular vote. After serving as President Elect for one year, Zobel’s new position as President was announced on June 26, 2014.

“I am delighted to be given the opportunity to act as President,” Zobel said, “We have a diverse set of experienced members handling anything from cleaning services to financial advising. Many of my current clients have resulted from my connections with the group and I am eager to get to know the members – old and new – even better.”

EAGO is a business referral group that allows local business leaders to network and find trusted colleagues in areas outside their expertise. Zobel, the only estate planning attorney of the association, has been a member since 2010 and actively participates in its weekly meetings. The president presides over all meetings and serves as the executive and administrative officer for the association.

About the Executive Association of Greater Orlando

The Executive Association of Greater Orlando is a quality referral network intended to increase business for and among members of the association. According to its Bylaws, each member represents a different trade, business, occupation or profession. The association works to promote a better acquaintance amongst its members by encouraging cooperation, business efficiency, and service to its members.
