Estate Attorney Merrell Bailey to Speak to Estate Planners at the 2015 Financial Symposium in Daytona Beach

ORLANDO, Oct. 27, 2015 – Estate attorney Mary Merrell Bailey, managing partner of Your Caring Law Firm located in Maitland, FL, will speak on November 4, 2015 to a gathering of estate planning professionals at the 2015 Financial Symposium. The event is jointly presented by the Estate Planning Council of the Fun Coast and the Community Foundation of Volusia and Flagler.

Bailey will kick off the half-day regional symposium with an 8:30 a.m. presentation titled “Housing Options for Aging in Place.” The event, which is being held at the Cici & Hyatt Brown Museum of Art in Daytona Beach, FL, is expected to attract a variety of estate planning professionals, including attorneys, bank trust officers, certified financial planners, certified public accountants, chartered life underwriters, and charitable planning professionals. Participants will be able to earn three hours of continuing education credits as well as participate in a valuable networking opportunity.

“I encourage my professional colleagues throughout Central Florida to join us in Daytona Beach for a unique learning experience on November 4th,” said Bailey. “I look forward to sharing knowledge and tips regarding the ‘aging in place’ movement which is catching on with seniors throughout the country, and to discussing popular housing solutions senior clients find most suitable to their needs.”
