

Hallie Zobel Participates in Panel for “Confronting Elder Financial Exploitation” May 13

Maitland, FL – May 14, 2014 – Your Caring Law Firm, a boutique legal practice focused on probate, wills, trust and guardianship services, as well as business succession, asset protection and estate planning, today announced that partner Hallie Zobel participated in a recent seminar regarding elder abuse. The three-day event, which was hosted by The Florida Attorney General’s Office and The Florida Bar Elder Law Section’s Committee, took place at the Embassy Suites in Altamonte Springs. Speaking during the second day of the seminar, Zobel provided insight into recent elder abuse cases alongside prosecutors, law enforcement, and elder law attorneys.

Zobel’s topic covered how criminal prosecutions and civil actions overlap. Specifically, Zobel’s example featured a case she handled in 2008, in which a local firm abused client payments and credit cards. The goal of the seminar was to help attendees enhance their knowledge and skill of devising successful investigations and resulting legal actions.

“Ever since volunteering in a local nursing home during high school I’ve had an interest in the well-being of elders,” Zobel explained. “After handling both criminal and civil jury trials, putting that knowledge to use in protecting my clients was very rewarding. It was a pleasure to participate in the panel and share my experiences with those that have similar goals.”

About The Florida Attorney General’s Office

The Florida Attorney General’s Office is responsible for protecting Florida’s residents from various types of fraud and enforces the state’s antitrust laws. As current Attorney General, one of Pam Bondi’s top priorities is investigating mortgage fraud and Medicaid fraud. Working alongside the Florida Bar, the Attorney General’s Office offers courses and seminars geared towards enhancing the skills of law professionals to better protect Floridians.
